

Ed Sheeran - Shape of You (Official Music Video)

Generated: May 4, 2026 | Mode: Normal | Video ID: JGwWNGJdvx8

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The provided transcript captures the full audio track of Ed Sheeran's official music video for the single 'Shape of You'. The content opens with a brief ringing sound and instrumental intro before launching into the complete song performance. The lyrics narrate the narrator's experience meeting a romantic interest at a bar, transitioning to dancing, and developing affection for the partner's physical form and personality over the course of early dating.

The song includes two verses detailing meeting and first date moments, a pre-chorus building tension, and a repeated chorus declaring love for the partner's 'shape' and body. Repetitive 'Oh-I-oh-I' ad-libs separate chorus sections, while a 'Come on, be my baby' hook leads into the final chorus. Minor non-musical audio cues include costume rustling and a vocal groan near the 4-minute mark as the track concludes.

GIST

"Ed Sheeran's official 'Shape of You' music video features the full song performance, with lyrics tracing a casual romantic connection from a bar meeting to early dating milestones."

TIMELINE

00:01	Opening Ringing Sound A short ringing sound plays at the very start of the video, preceding all musical elements.
00:06	Instrumental Intro The instrumental backing track begins, establishing the song's rhythmic foundation.
00:15	First Verse Ed Sheeran starts singing the opening verse, describing preferring a bar over a club to find a lover.
00:30	Pre-Chorus The narrator references putting Van Morrison on the jukebox and starting to dance with the love interest.
00:36	First Chorus The iconic chorus launches, declaring the narrator's desire for the love interest's affection and love for their shape.

00:57	Chorus Repetition The chorus repeats, emphasizing the magnetic push-pull dynamic of the relationship and daily new discoveries about the partner.
01:16	Ad-Lib Interlude Repetitive 'Oh-I-oh-I' vocal ad-libs play between chorus sections to reinforce the song's hook.
01:36	Second Verse The second verse details the pair's first date, including thrifty all-you-can-eat meals and long conversations.
01:53	Second Pre-Chorus The narrator describes kissing in a taxi and asking the driver to play the radio as they sing along.
01:56	Chorus Reprise The full chorus returns, reiterating affection for the partner's body and daily new discoveries.
02:56	Outro Hook A repetitive 'Come on, be my baby' hook plays multiple times, building into the final chorus.
03:18	Final Chorus The chorus plays one last time, blending 'shape of you' and 'body' lyrics with the outro hook.
03:55	Closing Lyric The track winds down with a final repetition of the 'I'm in love with the shape of you' line.
04:01	Costume Rustling Non-musical costume rustling sounds are heard as the musical performance ends.
04:08	Closing Groan A vocal groan plays as the video reaches its conclusion, after all musical elements have faded.

KEY TAKEAWAYS

1. The video is the official music video for Ed Sheeran's single 'Shape of You', with an audio track consisting almost entirely of the full song performance.
2. The song's opening verse describes meeting a romantic interest at a bar, playing Van Morrison on a jukebox, and dancing together.
3. The chorus declares the narrator's love for the partner's 'shape' and body, noting a magnetic push-pull dynamic in the relationship.
4. The second verse details early dating activities including all-you-can-eat meals, long conversations about family, and a taxi ride with the radio playing.

5. Repetitive 'Oh-I-oh-I' vocal ad-libs are used between chorus sections to reinforce the song's catchy, memorable hook.
6. A repetitive 'Come on, be my baby' hook precedes the final chorus, blending with the track's closing lyrics.
7. Non-musical audio cues are minimal, limited to an opening ringing sound, instrumental intro, costume rustling, and a closing vocal groan.